

CONTRA COSTA ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®

HOSTS 25th ANNUAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

Event Benefits CCAR Scholarship Fund and Helping Hands Charity

WALNUT CREEK, California,--July 20, 2011—The Contra Costa Association of REALTORS® will be hosting its annual Golf Tournament on Monday, August 15, 2011 at the Contra Costa Country Club located at 801 Golf Club Road in Pleasant Hill. The yearly benefit draws participants from throughout the community and offers fun for both players and non-players.

The tournament kicks off with a shotgun start at 10 A.M. with a four-person scramble at one of the area's premier golf courses, Contra Costa Country Club. A registration fee of $225 includes 18 holes of golf, BBQ lunch, beverages, gifts, snacks, hole contests, prizes and a post-event reception and cocktail hour. Non-golfers are a welcome tradition and may come out and enjoy the day and lunch for an $85.00 fee.

"This is a great event, a really fun day," says Mike Clancy, former President of CCAR and Golf Tournament Chairman. "We have great golf, a nice course, great food and drink and lots of laughs—all for two really good causes. Everyone always loves it."

The tournament will be followed by a reception and auction. Players and friends can bid on a wide variety of valuable items and enjoy hosted hors d'oeuvres and a no-host bar.

Everyone who participates will win the satisfaction of helping two charitable organizations. All proceeds from the tournament directly benefit the CCAR Scholarship Fund and CCAR Helping Hands Charity.

Tournament sponsorships for the luncheon, cocktail hour and hole contests are available to CCAR Members, Affiliates and local businesses, and will appear prominently on event materials and signage.
